

Final assessment/evaluation:

- 1 individual short written assignment (a 125-word or 200-word summary) [5%] → at the end of each of the 6 compulsory topics [so that, 30%]
- 1 individual 15-minute oral presentation on any of the topics discussed in class [20%] → Presentations will take place from April 28th to May 14th.
- 1 listening comprehension [20%] → On May 14th
- A comprehensive final exam covering the topics developed in class [30%]

Short written assignments.	Evidence of relevant reading. Capacity to develop and assess arguments. Understanding of relevant source materials. Ability to analyse data critically. Original thinking and a willingness to take risks.	30
Oral presentation. Listening	Evidence of relevant reading. Capacity to develop and assess arguments. Understanding of relevant source materials. Ability to analyse data critically. Original thinking and a willingness to take risks. Oral presentation.	40
A comprehensive final exam.	Evidence of relevant reading. Capacity to develop and assess arguments. Understanding of relevant source materials. Ability to analyse data critically. Original thinking and a willingness to take risks.	30